

Juliana J. Uram Fund

The Juliana J. Uram Fund was created by her sons, James, Paul, Thomas, Matthew and Patrick as a gift to their mother.

Julie is a retired registered nurse at the Butler Co. Memorial Hospital. She attended Butler County Memorial Hospital School of Nursing and has also completed continuing education at The University of Pittsburgh.

Julie won the Benjamin Rush Award from the Washington County Medical Society, was the first woman Campaign President for the United Way of Washington County, as well as the first woman to conduct four Health-O-Ramas for the United Way of Washington County.

Julie has served on many boards including the Women's Auxiliary at Washington and Jefferson College where she served as the President, President of St. Lucy's Auxiliary, Washington Hospital Foundation, and The Pittsburgh Symphony Association. In 2007, the WCCF presented her with the Woman of Philanthropy Award.

She and her husband, Andrew, reside in Washington, PA.
