

Dr. Jarol A. DeVoge

Dr. Jarol A. DeVoge has held various education-related positions and retired as Director of Instructional Support Services at the Intermediate Unit I in October 2010.

Jarol earned a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Education from the University of Pittsburgh. She also holds an Elementary Principal Certification from California University of PA, and, in 2000, earned a Doctorate of Education from Duquesne University.

Jarol has been involved with the WCCF for many years. She has been active on our Women of Philanthropy Committee since its inception in 2007 and is the advisor on the Ed DeVoge Fund, to which she is a contributor.

Jarol is a prior member of the Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development, the National Staff Development Council, and also the American Association of University Women. She currently serves on the Board of Smart Futures and is the Vice President of the Board of Little Lake Theatre.

Jarol has lived in Washington since 1958 and is the widow of Ed DeVoge, who worked at the Observer Reporter for many years.

