

Alex E. Paris, III

Alex E. Paris, III is the third generation at the helm of the family business, Alex Paris Contracting, in Smith Township.

A life-long resident of Washington County, Alex graduated from Avella High School and earned a Bachelor of Science from West Liberty University.

Alex is the Vice Chairman of the National Utility Contractors Association and the Former President of the PA Utility Contractors Association where he continues to serve on the Board. In both 2001 and 2009, he was named Contractor of the Year by the PA Utility Contractors Association.

Alex serves on the Board of Athletics Inc. of Avella and the West Liberty University Foundation.

He and his wife, Valerie, reside in Avella.

