

Lynne M. Stout

Lynne M. Stout worked for 15 years as a Social Services Coordinator for Presbyterian SeniorCare in Washington. She now works part-time for the family-owned business, Atlas Services Corporation, a site development and excavation contractor located in Eighty-Four.

Previously, Lynne was a Legislative Aid to a former President Pro Tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania and worked for former State Senator J. William Lincoln of Fayette County.

Lynne earned a Bachelor's Degree in Gerontology from California University of Pennsylvania and currently serves on the California University Alumni Board. She has also been a volunteer on several committees for various charities over the years.

Lynne and her husband, Steve, live in Washington.

