$6,245 was raised for 18 permanent charitable funds of the Washington County Community Foundation

A total of $6,245 was raised for 18 permanent charitable funds of the Washington County Community Foundation through two raffle drawings for Pittsburgh Penguins tickets, sponsored by rose plastic in California. The winner of the first drawing was Observer-Reporter employee, Dan Fennell whose ticket purchase benefited the Leadership Washington County Fund, which sold a raffle-high 301 tickets. The winner of the second drawing was Mark Campbell from Campbell Insurance Associates who took his son, Mike, along with Bill & Noah Wolfe. The 3-1 win over the NY Rangers ensured home-ice advantage for the Pens in the first round of the playoffs.
