Community Foundation Awards $4,400 To Charitable Groups

The Washington County Community Foundation (WCCF) recently awarded $4,400 to local charitable groups from its discretionary funds. Grants were awarded as follows:

Acorn Fund - $1,000 to The Caring Network for its Prescription Assistance Program

Ben Franklin Fund - $500 to the Monongahela Women's Club for its Coats For Kids program

John R. Duskey Fund - $500 to the Chartiers Houston Community Library for its "Bee Brilliant" book club incentive program

Roy Gillespie Fund - $1,000 to McDonald Presbyterian Church to purchase a computer for the McDonald Youth Ministries Program

John & Barbara Campbell Fund - $1,000 to the Monongahela Area Library for the replacement of an antiquated furnace

Friends of Frank Tracanna Fund - $200 to the Holy Rosary Parish to support volunteer projects of the Youth Group

Judge David L. Gilmore Fund - $100 to the American Legion Auxiliary #902 for welcome home kits for wounded veterans

Dr. Wilson & Merne Pizzi Fund - $100 to the First Love Christian Academy for its teen missions club service projects

The WCCF follows a quarterly grant-making cycle and has cumulatively awarded more than $750,000 since 1996. For additional information, please contact the Foundation at 724-222-6330 or wccf@cobweb.net or visit the website at www.wccf.net.
