The Washington County Community Foundation and Signature Sponsor, Washington Federal, are pleased to host a special outreach concert of the Pittsburgh Symphony at the newly renovated Canon-McMillan High School Auditorium on Tuesday, February 3, 2004. The concert is made possible in part from the generous support of lead sponsors Washington Federal, Peacock Keller & Ecker, and Dr. and Mrs. William McMahan. Proceeds from the concert will be used to create the Canonsburg Community Fund, a permanent charitable fund at the community foundation to benefit the Canonsburg community.

The program, titled Music to Warm a Cold Winter's Night, will be conducted by Pittsburgh Symphony Resident Conductor Lucas Richman, and will include Beethoven's Symphony No.1 in C Major, Opus 21 and Georges Bizet's Suite No.2 from Carmen. Alison Peters Fujito will be the featured violinist in Camille Saint-Saens' Introduction and Rondo capriccioso in A minor for Violin and Orchestra, Opus 28. The concert will begin at 7:30 pm and last approximately one hour with a complimentary reception to follow.

Tickets at $20 are available at the following locations: Canon-McMillan High School (Music Dept.), L&M Flower Shop, Malone Flower Shop, Rainbow Graphics, Robert A. Maceiko Office, Sarris Candies, Vitullo Travel Agency, and Washington Federal (Canonsburg Branch). For additional information, please contact the Washington County Community Foundation at 724-222-6330 or wccf@cobweb.net.
